TWO INJURED

When Street Car Jumped the Track Late Yesterday Afternoon in East Second Street

Mrs. Addie Hill and Mr. A. L. Merz Badly Hurt But Will Recover

Yesterday afternoon about 5:45 o'clock a very serious accident happened to car No. 27, of the Maysville Street Railway Co., in charge of motorman Henry F. Otto. Just after the car had crossed Union street going east, it is supposed to have struck a stone on the track, which caused it to jump the track and turn square around, north and south, and run across the pavement on the north side of Second street.

Mr. A. L. Merz and Mrs. Addie Hill, who were among the passengers, were thrown from their seats to the ground with considerable force. Dr. Woodson H. Taulbee was almost immediately on the scene and rendered first aid to Mr. Merz and Mrs. Hill.

In a short time Mr. Merz, whose injury is in his back, rallied sufficiently to be placed on a car and was taken to his home.

Mrs. Hill, whose injuries are a broken right arm and a bruised body and face was placed in Conklin's ambulance and taken to her home at "Squire Dressel's." Mr. Sherman Arn and Mr. Jas. H. Hall picked Mrs. Hill up. She was lifeless for a while.

In a few hours Supt. Holliday had the car back on the track. Traffic was not delayed.

There were about five passengers on the car besides Mr. Merz and Mrs. Hill, among them being Mr. Sherman Arn, Mr. Jas. H. Hall, Mr. Fred Arn, Jr., Mr. William Martin and one other.

The accident was unavoidable and the car was not speeding.

The last reports from Mr. Merz and Mrs. Hill were that they were resting well this morning.

PARLEYING

But A Great European War Seems Inevitable

Russia and Austria Are Negotiating

London, England, July 31.—There are only two factors tonight giving the faintest hope of averting a general European war.

First—Russia and Austria are engaged again in direct negotiations.

Second—Both Great Britain and France are using their utmost endeavors in favor of peace.

On the other hand, Russia has ordered a general mobilization and Germany has declared a state of siege, which is undoubtedly a prelude to war if it does not cover mobilization.

London, July 31.—A dispatch from Berlin to Reuters Telegram Company says that a state of war has been proclaimed in Germany.

Berlin, July 31.—A decree proclaiming martial law and the prohibition of publication of news of the movements of German troops and war material was issued today. The proclamation announced military measures on the frontiers, armed protection of the railroads and the restriction of telegraphic, postal and railroad services, except for military purposes.

Russians Blow Up Bridge.

London, July 31.—A central news dispatch from Berlin says the Russian troops today blew up the frontier railroad bridges of the Warsaw-Vienna railroad.

"State of War" is Explained.

London, July 31.—The "state of war" proclaimed in Germany means, in other words, martial law under which the military authorities take charge of the situation in conformity with Paragraph 68 of the constitution of the German empire. The kingdom of Bavaria, however, is excluded from the operation of today's proclamation, and will have to issue a similar decree if it desires to do so, as it is an independent kingdom. Today's proclamation was signed by the German emperor as king of Prussia.

German Export War Measure.

Berlin, July 31.—The German Federal council today issued a decree prohibiting exports of grain, flour, foodstuffs, meats, animal products, automobile trucks, motorcycles, petroleum, coal tar and coal oil. This goes into effect immediately. The step taken by the Federal council, whose members represent the rulers of the Federated States, composing the German empire, was said to have been necessitated by the heavy exports of the past few days reported by the chambers of commerce. It was semi-officially announced that the matters dealt with by the Federal council were of "secondary importance."

No Hope of Averting War

London, July 31.—Official announcement of the resumption of the "conversations" at St. Petersburg and Vienna came today at a moment when pessimism had taken possession of all Europe. The hope that it might lead to a peaceable solution was grasped with desperation, but the news was offset later by the proclamation of martial law in Germany, which was regarded as a preliminary to the mobilization of the German forces for war. Everybody then seemed to settle down to await the news that the great European powers had decided to engage in a struggle for supremacy. There was nothing to give the public hope that a general war might be averted.

The stock exchange in London and the big provincial cities as well as those on the continent were closed owing to the breakdown of the credit system, which was made complete by the postponement of the Paris settlement. This, it was pointed out, would necessitate some fifty members of the London stock exchange.

French Deputy Assassinated.

Paris, France, July 31.—Jean Leon Jaures, the noted Socialist deputy, was assassinated tonight while dining in a small restaurant near the Bourse. The assassin was arrested, but refused to disclose his identity. Later he was identified as Raoul Villain, 29 years old, and said to be the son of a clerk of the civil court at Rheims.

AUTO MIX-UP

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock an auto truck going east swerved in the wrong direction and struck an auto coming west at Donovan's corner, damaging the auto. In some manner Dr. Claypool's buggy got in the mixup and had one of the front wheels turn off. Luckily no one was hurt.

MRS. NANNIE T. ABBOTT

Young Wife and Former Maysville Girl Is Called By Death After a Few Days' Illness.

Death loves a shining mark.

The illness of Mrs. Nannie Thompson Abbott at Marietta, Ga., noted in The Ledger of Thursday and Friday terminated in her sudden death Friday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Thompson were with their daughter when the end came and the sad event was heart-breaking to them as she was ill only three days.

Last night Mr. T. J. Bacon received the following telegram from Mr. Thompson at Marietta:

"Nannie died at 6 o'clock. Will arrive at Maysville 8:25 Saturday evening. Funeral Monday at 2 p. m. from residence."

Deceased was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allie H. Thompson and was only last year married to Dr. A. P. Abbott of the Government service, now located at Marietta, Ga. One sister, Miss Susie Thompson also survives.

She was 24 years old last April and was married to Dr. Albert P. Abbott on October 5, 1913.

The sudden death of this lovable and amiable young woman comes as the saddest of sad news. Every one esteemed her for her many traits of character which appealed to all who love a sunny and hopeful nature.

She was a devoted member of the Maysville Christian Church.

The remains will reach here tonight at 8:25 over the L. & N. and will be taken to the stricken parent's home in East Third street, where she was recently the cheery and laughing guest of her parents and sister.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home, with her pastor, Rev. A. F. Stahl of the Maysville Christian Church in charge. Burial in the Maysville Cemetery.
